

LAIS

LIGHTING | Indoor
ANGELA ARDISSON

An iconic masterpiece, fusing nature and design in a perfect synthesis. Designed by Angela Ardisson, Lais is much more than a pendant lamp with a striking design: it is a true work of art, full of unique features and meanings. The manual oxidations form unique colour marks that evoke timeless landscapes and add character and depth to the surface. The bold and minimalist geometric contours harmoniously dialogue with the sophistication of antique brass, creating a light source that illuminates any architectural space with unparalleled elegance.

Model: assembly required.

Structure: the internal structure is crafted from polished brass, while the external surface features antiqued brass.

Covering / Coating: the oxidations, unique, are completely handmade.
